

Video Production

2011-12 School Year

Instructor: Amy Cassell

CLASSROOM: A205
OFFICE PHONE: 765-3315 X128
EMAIL ADDRESS: acassell@usd329.com
CLASS HOURS: 4B 2:03-3:28

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Prerequisite: Introduction to Drawing & Principles of Illustration

- Ø Creation of videos
- Ø Use of video manipulation software
- Ø Videography, lighting, audio, directing, and editing
- Ø Green screen production
- Ø Clay animation
- Ø Stop motion
- Ø Use of video equipment including camcorder and computer
- Ø Creation of video for school activities
- Ø Be creative!

CLASSROOM RULES

Rule 1 – Be on time to class

Rule 5 – Listen to instructions

Rule 2 – Stay on task

Rule 6 – No improper language

Rule 3 – Cell phones go in the designated box at the beginning of the class period. They remain in the box until the bell rings even if you leave the room.

Rule 4 – I-Pods and other listening devices may be used only if the teacher is not teaching, the student IS able to hear instructions, and the teacher approves.

Additional procedures as reviewed in class are to be followed.

GRADING

- Grading procedures are as follows:
 - Daily Performance by student (reviewed by teacher) 5 points daily
 - 1 = on time
 - 3 = on task
 - 1 = attitude
 - Homework assignments/Projects: Vary by assignment
 - Students will have 2 days to make up a missed class or a 0 will be given for daily points. Students will be allowed to make up all of the daily points for missed class periods IF the student has informed the teacher of the absence beforehand and/or the absence is an excused absence. If the absence is unexcused half of the daily points may be made up. Missed class may be made up during a 40 minute Advisor Base or during another arranged time. There are times when no work can be made up due to group projects. In these cases the student can be given an assignment from the textbook, etc and receive points back.